

CS International School

Newsletter

CBSE Affiliation Number - 831148

September

1.Teacher's day

Teachers Day was celebrated with great fervor and exuberance At CSIS on 5th September.

The program commenced with the lightning of the lamp and garlanding of the portrait and offering floral tribute to the great educationist and former president of India Dr Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan, entailed by a short assembly including thought , news ,speech on Dr Radhakrishnan and role of teachers in shaping the Society .A cultural programme was presented by students for the mentors which included a play highlighting the idea that students cannot thank their teachers enough in their life for grooming them.

2.Ganesh Chaturthi

Ganesh Chaturthi, also known as Vinayaka Chaturthi, is marked by the installation of Lord Ganesha's clay idol.

"The festival of Ganesh Chaturthi marks the birth of Lord Ganesha, The God of wisdom, prosperity, protector and remover of obstacles."

Students of CSIS celebrated this special occasion. It began with traditional lamp lighting followed by a prayer to invoke the blessings of Lord Ganesha.

A thought-provoking talk on Ganesh Chaturthi, A Shloka, citing the magnificence of Lord Ganesha was also recited. The students enjoyed the assembly very much and learnt about their rich culture and heritage.

3.Counselling Session

With an objective to provide proper guidance to the school children CSIS organised a counselling session on 14th September by professional counsellors. The programme aimed at giving proper direction to the students. various topics were covered including self-esteem, social -skills , handling emotions, listening and communication skills and Academic achievements.

4.Hindi Diwas

Some of the highlighting activities of this day were speech , Hindi poem recitation , Dohey, and Slogan writing.

Hindi drama play on conservation of Forests and Wildlife was beautifully enacted by the students of the primary wing.

5.Blue Day celebration

The kindergarten section of CS international school celebrated Blue Day on 21st of September it was a pleasant and cool day for the tiny tots. The significance of blue colour was reiterated through a series of activities. The classrooms were decorated with blue balloons. The dress code of the day was blue .All the children & teachers came dressed up in different shades and hues of blue. Clad in blue dresses ,students were made to recognise blue colour through different games and play way activities . Blue coloured objects like umbrella , ball , cloud , flower etc. were at display thus providing the students opportunities to have a clear sense of the colour and its importance.

1.Dussehra Celebration

Keeping the festive spirit alive, Dussehra was celebrated on the 1st of October at CSIS. Students celebrated the festival of "Victory of Good over Evil" i.e. Dussehra with great enthusiasm. The children were advised to imbibe the qualities and values of life which Lord Ram had followed during his lifetime. Mahishasura mardhini , A beautiful dance sequence was presented by the students on the occasion.

2.Visit to Jawaharlal Nehru Planetarium

In its effort to provide experiential learning to the students beyond the confines of the classroom, CSIS organised an educative field trip to Jawaharlal Nehru Planetarium on the 20th of October. 'Yes' CSIS has always provided its students with multiple platforms to explore their talents and on the skills through its holistic learning framework. The school has always emphasized on the importance of learning outside of classrooms and participating in this field trip has been an enriching experience for the students.

3.Rangoli competition and Dia decoration

On 21st October, Rangoli , Dia Decoration and Mask Making Competition was held among the four houses of the school .The children really came out with their creative instinct and displayed the best in various pattern &design.

4.Morning Assembly

Morning assemblies at CSIS are a platform for all the students right from kindergarten to class 10th to connect with each other and begin the day on a note of unity and positivity. Every day, students from different classes and houses conduct the morning assembly. At the start of each day students are minded of their moral values, such as time management, honesty, punctuality and so on.

5.Primary competitions

Co-curricular activities are an essential part of school life ,which help in enhancing the learning process in school in a more effective way . Holding and organising various competition not only bring out the talent of each student but also instil in them the spirit of zest and enthusiasm .

A wide range of competitions were organised for the primary wing during the month of September and October .

EVS activities on pollution wild animals ,domestic animals ,air and water .

Pre -Primary activities of Dia making ,shadow concept and sink and float.

Suchplethora of activities cater to various interests and aptitudes. A glimpse of the same.

